

Name _____ Period _____

Chapter One

1. Photography began in _____.
2. Camera obscura means _____.
3. Jonathon Schultz is best known because he _____.
4. The definition for emulsion is _____.
5. Niepce did what to the pewter plate to make it light sensitive? _____.
6. Daguerre did this to improve on Niepce's emulsion. _____.
7. The name of the first photographic process outside of the laboratory is called _____.
8. Talbot's process is called _____.
9. Talbot's process is special because _____.
10. Frederick Archer introduced this. _____.
11. Tourists collected inexpensive prints of local attractions called _____.
12. In the 1850's, photography showed this aspect of society. _____.
13. _____ was famous for his early social photography.

Name _____ Period _____

14. _____ was famous for his Civil War photography.
15. _____ invented the zoopraxiscope.
16. Pictorialist represented photography in this manner. _____
17. Naturalist represented photography in this manner. _____
18. Why is Alfred Steiglitz considered to be the first modern photographer? _____
19. This makes Steiglitz's photos thoroughly modern. _____
20. This was the subject of James Van Der Zee's photos _____.
21. What are the 2 techniques that James Van Der Zee used?

22. List 3 famous people VanDerZee photographed. _____
23. Name 2 photographers who "surveyed" the social condition of the day. _____
24. Many people earn a "living wage" from art careers. TRUE FALSE
25. In an art career _____, _____ and _____ are as important as mastering your craft.

Name _____ Period _____

26. Name the basic categories of professional photography. _____,

_____ , _____,

_____ ,

_____.

27. Explain the differences between a staff and a freelance photographer.

Staff _____

Freelance _____

28. What are two important qualities a good wedding photographer must possess?

a. _____

b. _____

29. Name two important elements in portrait photography.

a. _____

b. _____

30. Photojournalism can include exotic locations, or taking pictures for the local plumbing union.

TRUE FALSE

31. Fashion photography is low paying. TRUE FALSE

MARGARET BOURKE WHITE 1904-71

Name _____ Period _____

32. Margaret Bourke White graduated from _____ University.

33. She first took photographs for _____ magazine and was considered to be an _____ photographer.

34. She broke away from her technical work and went on to photograph the _____.

35. Ms. Bourke White's major accomplishment was her realization of the camera's _____.